

ESTHETICS

AT STATERA, we believe in caring for the natural beauty of your skin both from the inside out and the outside in. In addition to our organic treatments, we work with you to address nutrition and other lifestyle factors that impact your skin. Regular facials and skin care treatments can slow the aging process, rejuvenate and hydrate skin, help clear acne and promote an even skin tone. Facials also reduce the impact of environmental damage and can help relieve stress.

MEET OUR ESTHETICIANS

AMANDA WETTSTEIN
Esthetician

Amanda Wettstein graduated with her Esthetics license from Capri College, Dubuque, IA in 2019. She also is certified in Microdermabrasion and holds an AA degree with a background in health and medical science. She is passionate about helping people attain healthy skin at any stage of life. As an Esthetician, I love helping people feel and look their very best. I love being an esthetician who can help people improve their skin from the inside out as well as from the outside in. I enjoy assisting others in finding a great skincare routine that works for them and guides them in learning how to take care of their bodies for ultimate skin health and wellness.

LYNSAY KRAMER
Esthetician

Lyndsay is a licensed esthetician who is happy to help a wide variety of people feel and look their best. Lyndsay is diagnosed with Autism Spectrum Disorder, a neuro-developmental disability that generally leads to differences in communication, social skills, unique patterns of thought, and behavior. In speaking with Lyndsay, she is engaging and joyful. Lyndsay is high functioning but may not recognize humor, or may require more detailed information in a conversation. Lyndsay works through these challenges and takes pride in her abilities. I use my skills and knowledge of Art and Science to succeed in my career as an esthetician. My clients also benefit from my customized recommendations on what products would be suitable for their own skin so they can achieve radiant healthy results. My passion in life is to point others down the right path to a healthier skin care routine.
